WORKING TOGETHER

“A Joint Effort of Public & Private Tax Professionals”

The Working Together program continues to promote the positive ongoing relationship between the tax practitioner community and the Internal Revenue Service. The annual meeting, open to both IRS employees and the practitioner community, has become a “mark your calendar” event for many New Jersey tax professionals. The intent is to engage in ongoing, meaningful dialogue aimed at improving our dealings with one another, thereby improving service to our common customer – the taxpayer public.

What will be discussed on January 8th

The focus of this Working Together will be on:

- During the morning session there will be discussion on updated Data Breach issues and concerns as well as a keynote speaker who heads the IRS’s Identity Theft Division
- During the afternoon session, three panels of practitioners & IRS will discuss various provisions of the Tax Cuts & Jobs Act (TCJA) and their impact on the upcoming tax season & client planning opportunities. Along with in depth discussions of the TCJA individual & business provisions, there will be an extended discussion & analysis of the new Qualified Business Income Deduction allowed under IRC 199A.

The registration information is on the back and you can mail or click on the link and register on-line with Seton Hall University.

Registration opens at 7:30 am and the seminar begins at 8:00 am. Continental breakfast and hot lunch are provided as part of the registration fee.
